

SHUSWAP PRO DEVELOPMENT ASSOCIATION

With the rise in unemployment and decrease in commercial development in the past few years, our economy could use a "shot in the arm." To that end, Shuswap Pro Development has been meeting for regular strategy sessions at the Bruce Coach board room. A number of new development projects are projected or seeking City approval in this area:

- SmartCentres
 - Former JL Jackson site
 - Askew's "on the hill"
- Our mission is to work with industry and local and provincial governments to create and stimulate responsible development and economic prosperity in the Shuswap area.

Our first initiative is to support the SmartCentres development proposal. If you agree, there are many ways to show your support:

- attend council meetings where the applications will be considered
- speak to council members
- attend the SmartCentres public information meeting Oct. 21
- visit www.salmonarmshopping.com
